securityQ: Fading an image using jQuery I have a simple question but my background is in ASP.NET, C# and VB.net I have the following control (I realize the CSS class I am using is redundant but I am just trying to get this to work) I would like to have the image fade in when the page loads and fade out again when the page is closed. I haven't seen an example of this yet and I don't see how jQuery makes it any easier. A: `$(function() { $("#tam").fadeIn(); $("#tam").fadeOut();`
